SECOND MURDER SUSPECT APPREHENDED

PASADENA, CA – Pasadena Police Detectives announced the arrest of a second murder suspect in the killing of David Crosby on May 29, 2009 inside the Atlantis Restaurant in Pasadena. Charles Wetstone, 19 of Pasadena resident was arrested without incident at an apartment complex in Glendale, California on the evening of June 16, 2009. This follows the arrest of Dwayne Rice who was apprehended on June 11, 2009 in San Bernardino. Murder charges with gang allegations have been filed with the Office of the District Attorney against both suspects. Both are being held without bail.

“The men and women of the Detective Section and the Fugitive Apprehension Unit have done an exemplary job in tracking these suspect down and getting them into custody,” says Chief Melekian. “The fact that we have these two hardened criminal behind bars so quickly after their brazen act of violence will send the message that we will look for, find and arrest these violent felons.”

The investigation is continuing.
