PASADENA POLICE DEPARTMENT'S 8TH ANNUAL CLASSIC CAR SHOW

PASADENA, CA – On Sunday June 21, 2009, the Pasadena Police Department will host the Pasadena Police Department's 8th Annual Classic Car Show sponsored by the Paseo Colorado and the LoJack Corporation. The event kicks off at 8:00 a.m. on Colorado Boulevard at Garfield Avenue.

About 100 vintage and hot rod cars will be on display on Colorado Boulevard ranging from 1900-1974. There will be live music, raffle prizes, food booths and a police helicopter ride auction. The public is welcome at no charge.

Anyone wishing to enter a car may do so up to the morning of the event.

Registration forms are available on line at:

Entry fee is $20.00 per vehicle. All proceeds go to benefit the Police Activities League and the Haven House, a home for battered women and their families. "The Pasadena Police Department relies heavily on community programs that help families in crisis and provides prevention programs for youth," says Chief of Police Bernard Melekian. "Now more than ever, these nonprofits and others need assistance and we are proud to be able to help them with the funds we raise through this effort." Trophies will be awarded in several categories for the best cars.
