BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT IDENTIFIED

PASADENA, CA – The bank robbery suspect who robbed a bank on Monday and then jumped from a five story parking structure after being chased by police officers has been identified as Jason Arnold, 30 years old of Los Angeles. Mr. Arnold is on active parole and has a prior arrest for robbery. Pasadena Police Detectives are still investigating the case and are looking to other robberies in the city to determine if he might be a suspect.

Arnold survived the five story jump and is currently hospitalized in serious condition. It is anticipated that he will be arrested and booked when he is released from the hospital.
