Re: Resignation from Human Relations Commission
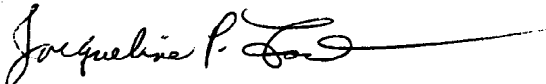

Dear Council Member Tyler:

It is after long and agonizing thought that I am regretfully submitting this letter as my notice of resignation from the position of District 7 representative on the Human Relations Commission.

Beginning last Spring, there were several conversations and a final meeting with Field Representative, Pam Thyret. I indicated my sincere willingness to serve because of my belief that the issues of human relations in Pasadena were very important and the need was there for volunteers. Ms. Thyret was very informative when we discussed the time commitment necessary. Ms. Sonya Amos, the Staff Representative, was also thorough and gracious in her welcome and explanation of the Commission. The current Commissioners were all very warm and professional. I had anticipated a long and productive relationship.

As I indicated in my resume earlier, I am a flight attendant. Due to the current uncertain climate in the industry, I am accepting a relocation position to Las Vegas, Nevada. It has not been an easy decision to make at this stage in my life. However, I am looking forward to new and exciting endeavors.

I am so very appreciative of the opportunity to have served on the Human Relations Commission. It is such an important asset to the Council. In just a short amount of time, I learned a great deal from the other Commission members and the community at large. I have also attended some wonderful functions. Pasadena is a great place to live. I will hold it in the highest regard and remember it fondly.

Respectfully,

Jacqueline P. Ford
