Dear Paul:

It is with deep regret that I am resigning from the City of Pasadena Human Relations Commission.

It has been a great experience and I thoroughly enjoyed it. Thank you for appointing me to the position. The commission is a good one with fine people and ably chaired by Stephen Macala.

The reason for my resignation is twofold. For one thing, I have come out of retirement (again) and have accepted the position of Associate Pastor, First United Methodist Church, Burbank, and it is taking a considerable amount of time. The second, and more compelling reason, is the health of my youngest daughter and her husband. Patricia has Parkinson's and her husband is now having some very serious health problems, including a stroke. They have a 4 year old adopted daughter. We need to spend a great deal of time with them in the future.

Again, Paul, thank you for the kindness you and the entire city council have shown me by allowing me to serve on the Human Relations Commission.

Sincerely,

Inman Moore, 1270 Cordova #17, Pasadena, CA 91106
