CEREMONIAL MATTERS

The City Clerk administered the oath of office to Philip Chiao, Design Commissioner.

Councilmember Kennedy stated the following for the record:

"My fellow colleagues, Pasadena residents, neighbors and friends, Black History Month honors the influence and contributions of African Americans to United States history. Black history is, and has been since the beginnings of our great country, American history. The observance evolved from "Negro History Week," which was announced and created by renowned historian Carter G. Woodson and the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History in 1926. Since 1976, every U.S. president has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month.

Like other cities as well as states around the country, the city of Pasadena proudly celebrates Black History Month. We do so with the knowledge that Pasadena has and continues to occupy a prominent place in black history and correspondingly in American history. Most know of the pioneering roles of Pasadenans Mack and Jackie Robinson in the field of sports and business. The landmark 1970 decision in Spangler v. Pasadena Board of Education desegregated Pasadena public schools and provided a precedent that guided many subsequent school desegregation cases.

Currently, Pasadena is home to many accomplished, noteworthy African American citizens. One of them is Pasadena civic leader and businessman Robert C. Davidson, Jr., Chairman of the Boards of famed Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia and the Art Center of Design here in Pasadena. Another one of our neighbors in Pasadena is Medal of Freedom and Congressional Gold Medal recipient Dr. Terrence Roberts, one of the nine students who desegregated Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas. Additionally, we must not forget the contributions of Arzella and Fred Valentine, owners of Woods & Valentine Mortuary on Fair Oaks Avenue, and the hugely successful real estate investor duo Brenda and William Galloway of Summit Enterprises.

The 2017 Black History Month theme focuses on the crucial role of education in the history of African Americans. Newly freed slaves pushed for the establishment of free public schools as well as colleges. Their thirst for knowledge played a role in the movement to universally accepted and expected government supported, free public school education throughout America.

As we pause to celebrate the significant progress we have made in our nation to provide our youth with liberties, freedoms and educational opportunities, let us remember why newly freed slaves and so many others have battled for equal access to education. Education provides one of the most powerful equalizing forces in society and accordingly every child in America deserves a quality public education.

We study history for a compelling reason – if we fail to learn from our past mistakes, we are doomed to repeat them. The new administration in Washington apparently needs a reminder of the importance of the preceding sentence. I encourage all of us to be informed and concerned citizens who know our history and use the knowledge to guide us to a better future for all.

Finally, there are many, many other neighbors and friends deserving of recognition for their contributions to the fabric of America during Black History Month. You know who they are and I would simply ask that you take a moment during this special month to share your love and gratitude for them. Additionally, please remember that we each have the power to make and shape history. The refusal of one woman, Rosa Parks, to give up her seat on a public bus in Montgomery, Alabama in 1955 ignited a movement and changed the world. I hope that the spirit of Rosa Parks inspires each of us to do what we can, where we can, when we can to make history and make the world a better place. In so doing, we appropriately honor Black History Month.

Thank you. God Bless the City of Pasadena and the United States of America.”

PUBLIC COMMENT ON MATTERS NOT ON THE AGENDA

Steve Stafford, Pasadena resident, spoke on the need for police assistance, and specifically the HOPE team, in dealing with aggressive panhandlers in Pasadena, and those requiring mental assistance.

Isabela Ghloni and Guohia Ghloni, Black Lives Matter, spoke on the need to treat African Americans fairly; and spoke in favor of peace throughout the nation.

In response to public comment, Councilmember Wilson spoke on a round table meeting with Chief Sanchez and members of the Boys and Girls Club of Pasadena which covered the same issues and problems detailed above.

Tim Martinez, on behalf of Pasadena ECO Advocates, invited the City Council to the Pasadena Candidate Forum on environment, health and sustainability to be held on February 23, 2017.

ADOPTION OF A RESOLUTION DESIGNATING THE CITY OF PASADENA AS A HOUSING-RELATED PUBLIC ENTITY IN CONNECTION WITH THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION DISPOSITION PROCESS FOR SR-710 SURPLUS PROPERTIES

Recommendation:

- (1) Find that the recommended action to adopt the subject resolution is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines per Section 15061(b)(3), the "General Rule" that CEQA only applies to projects that may have an effect on the environment; and
- (2) Adopt a resolution designating the City of Pasadena as a housing-related public entity in connection with the disposition process administered by the California Department of Transportation for State-owned SR-710 surplus properties. (Resolutions No. 9549)

Christopher Sutton, on behalf of Caltrans Tenants of 710 Corridor and United Caltrans Tenants, spoke on various aspects of the proposed resolution, and the need for the City staff to develop a plan to assist renters to purchase the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) properties.

Robert Flores, South Pasadena resident, spoke on the need for the City's proposed resolution to reference the Roberti Bill; and expressed concerns that very poor tenants will not be able to afford to purchase the properties for sale without the City's assistance.

Jasmine Abdullah Richards, Black Lives Matter Pasadena, spoke on the need for social programs for adults and children in the City.

The City Manager stated that the staff recommendation is the first step required by the City, to designate the City as a housing related entity, which is required in order for the City to pursue acquisition of any property from Caltrans.

Following discussion, it was moved by Councilmember Madison, seconded by Councilmember Gordo, to approve the staff recommendation. (Motion unanimously carried) (Absent: None)

The Mayor and Councilmember Hampton voiced support for the staff recommendation, identifying one of the benefits to such a change in allowing City Council Committee meetings to be conducted and begin in a timely manner.

Vice Mayor Masuda expressed concerns on lowering the number of Committee members to two, which he believes will lower the standards of discussion and reduce community representation.

In response to public comment, Councilmember Kennedy stated the following for the record:

"As a former Deputy Chief of Police in a major city, Richmond, Virginia, it would be unusual for a member of a bargaining unit to level veiled threats at an elected official and I want to be clear and on the record, that you have delivered a veiled threat that is not based on fact. So I am watching as well and I want you to understand that."

Councilmember Wilson recommended that the City Clerk's Office track attendance of City Council Committee meetings, in particular meetings that are delayed from starting on time or must be cancelled due to a lack of a quorum.

Following discussion, by consensus of the City Council, and on order of the Mayor, the information was received and filed.
