Subject: Avon Building Landmark Designation to be Decided

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

To whom it may concern,

Many childhood memories come to mind about our local Avon building and products. They were involved with the Rose Parade and many mothers would sell the products and it seemed like everyone had something Avon in their house. Most would even recognise the door knock and the words "Avon calling" from the sales person. Great times.

However, recently Avon has decided to use Satan in their advertising. Here is the headline

BIZARRE: Avon catalog features image of woman caressing baphomet

Here is the link

I am very proud of The City of Pasadena and its rich heritage but I am not comfortable with associating our town in any way with those who wish to sponsor advertising with Satan. Please choose wisely and decline the landmark designation and let Pasadena remain clean from associating any further with Avon. Google this and research it for yourself. I for one was sickened when I heard about it. I just hope you make the right decision for city.
