

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: sarah truher <slt3831@lausd.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 7:07 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

sarah truher
slt3831@lausd.net
244 s el molino
pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Cherylynne Berger <cherylynneberger@att.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:23 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/ Support a Right of Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

If other cities care about their hotel and other hospitality employees, why won't Pasadena do the same? It's absolutely unacceptable that our great city isn't guaranteeing the rights of workers laid off due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Cherylynne Berger
cherylynneberger@att.net
2439 Highland Avenue
Altadena . California 91001

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Caroline Ely <carolinemchick@msn.com>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:01 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: I Support Recall & Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Low wage workers have born the brunt of this pandemic and economic inequality even before then. Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have. There are many measures that I'm sure you're weighing all at once, but if you are sending government support to small businesses, you also owe support to our workforce who will have immediate consequences to their lives rather than to a business' bottom line.

Caroline Ely
carolinemchick@msn.com
1820 e Del Mar blvd
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Blas Ruiz <blasruiz48@msn.com>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:50 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/ Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, Los Angeles County and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs as business returns. Please support a similar worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protection.

Blas Ruiz
blasruiz48@msn.com
6 Avenida De. Azalea
Rancho Palos Verdes , California 90275

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Madelyn Armet <marmet@go.pasadena.edu>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:45 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

9/11/2016

This sender might be impersonating a domain that's associated with your organization. Learn why this could be a risk Feedback

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Madelyn Armet
marmet@go.pasadena.edu
491 Eldora rd
Pasadena , Indiana 46530

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Angela Morales <amorales@glendale.edu>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:41 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Angela Morales
amorales@glendale.edu
1770 . Asbury Dr.
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Stephen James <sjames@mtsac.edu>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:34 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Stephen James
sjames@mtsac.edu
576 E Howard St
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Nancy Dubuc <nancedubuc@att.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:33 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Nancy Dubuc
nancedubuc@att.net
610 East Howard Street
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Casey Klein <cklein333@earthlink.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:24 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Casey Klein
cklein333@earthlink.net
1415 N Chester ave
Pasadena , California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Michelle Bühler <mjbuhler@earthlink.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:22 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Michelle Bühler
mjbuhler@earthlink.net
597 E Claremont St
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Vincent Perez <vpzorro@comcast.net>
Sent: Saturday, June 27, 2020 3:58 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Support Right of Recall / Worker Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protection they deserve.

Vincent Perez
vpzorro@comcast.net
457 S Marengo Ave, Unit 7 (Sept 1, 2019 Move In)
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Roger Haas <rahaas2@sbcglobal.net>
Sent: Saturday, June 27, 2020 3:09 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/ Support a Right of Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Roger Haas
rahaas2@sbcglobal.net
497 E California Blvd, Apt 200
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Jomsky, Mark

---

From: Michael Dakan <Dakan.michael@pusd.us>
Sent: Saturday, June 27, 2020 9:35 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Michael Dakan
Dakan.michael@pusd.us
1733 N Raymond Ave
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Joshua Wessling <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:28 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Joshua Wessling
joshuawessling@yahoo.com
221 S Oak Knoll Ave.
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Tyson Grubb <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:25 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Tyson Grubb
tygrubb@mac.com
1130 N Lake Ave #1
Pasadena, California 91104-3743

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Vincent Kowal <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:23 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Vincent Kowal
vincekowal@gmail.com
668 N. Craig Avenue
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Yolanda Moore <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:23 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Yolanda Moore
yjeanmoore@yahoo.com
1718 Grevelia St
South Pasadena , California 91030

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Kimberly Feeney <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:21 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Kimberly Feeney
klinare1@yahoo.com
1750 East Mountain Street
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sally Beer <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:08 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/ Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, Los Angeles County and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs as business returns. Please support a similar worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protection. They should not be subject to unfair and unjust labor practices.

Sally Beer
sally.beer125@gmail.com
2931 Crestford Drive
Altadena, California 91001

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Kyle Kennelly <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:34 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Kyle Kennelly
1buddykins@gmail.com
63 s San Marino Ave
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Desiree Allard <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:32 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Desiree Allard
desiree_91523@yahoo.com
1320 N Mentor Ave
Pasadena , California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Esmeralda Camara <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:32 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Esmeralda Camara
esmecamara@gmail.com
847 N. Raymond Ave Unit 4
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Ellen King <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:31 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Ellen King
niftycurly@gmail.com
1140 N MAR VISTA AVE
PASADENA, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jose Pilpa <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:30 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Jose Pilpa
jose.pilpa@gmail.com
2600 E. Orange Grove Blvd.
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Raissa Echavarria <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:37 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Raissa Echavarria
raissa.echavarria89@gmail.com
15 N. Raymond Ave. #2
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6