

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Leila Towry <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 10:47 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Leila Towry
gypsycello@yahoo.com
352 flower st
Pasadena, California 91105

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Julie Hoy <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 11:03 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Protect Pasadena Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Please join with Glendale, Long Beach, Los Angeles, and County of Los Angeles and pass an ordinance that protects hospitality workers from unfair and unjust labor practices. Give workers the right to be recalled and retained, so that workers laid off because of the pandemic are guaranteed the ability to return to their jobs when the crisis subsides.

Thank you!

Julie Hoy
blueskies50014@yahoo.com
136 N Sierra Bonita Ave. C
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Tyrice Johnson <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 11:00 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Tyrice Johnson
tyrice.johnson2@gmail.com
137 S Wilson Ave
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Anne Chestang <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 10:56 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Anne Chestang
achest@aol.com
250 S Oak Knoll Ave #119
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Guadalupe Flores <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 11:10 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Guadalupe Flores
lupeflores.flores9@gmail.com
169 n Allen ave
Pasadena , California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Melina Carvajal <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 11:33 AM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Melina Carvajal
twirling.parasols@gmail.com
45 S. San Marino Ave.
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Diana deNoyelles <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 12:30 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

I support the retention and continuance of employment of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents who have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Diana deNoyelles
diana.denoyelles@gmail.com
397 S El Molino Ave. Apt 1
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Debra Pelch <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 12:51 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Debra Pelch
debrapelch@gmail.com
3750 Hampton Rd.
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Douglas V Guevara <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 1:25 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Douglas V Guevara
douglasgg20@gmail.com
2147 Duane st
Los Angeles , California 90039

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Izhar Bouraoui <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 1:29 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Izhar Bouraoui
izmoby@gmail.com
275 N Garfield ave, apt 13
Pasadena, California 91101

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: J Wong <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 2:06 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work. and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

J Wong
mle.sloan@yahoo.com
PO Box 412086
Los Angeles, California 90041

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jonathan Jaffrey <JJaffrey@coronalenergy.com>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 2:59 PM
To: Public Comment; City_Council
Subject: Hotels and City Businesses

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

-----

Pasadena City Council

I hope this evening you make the right choice and support the businesses that fund our City. Hotels like any other business have the right to make their own hiring and firing decisions consistent with State and Federal law. They do not need the City Councils help to make these decision. These business owners are the most knowledgeable on what they need and who they need when it comes to staffing.

As always we appreciate your support of Pasadena and the business community, and in this case your support of businesses rights to make operation decisions in these difficult time when just staying in business in the challenge.

Thank you

Jonathan Jaffrey
Pasadena Business Owner (nonhotel)

Sent from my iPad

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jane Demirdjian <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 3:07 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Jane Demirdjian
janedemirdjian@yahoo.com
1960 E Corson St
Pasadena, California 91107

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Nadia Rivera Cruz <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Monday, June 29, 2020 3:11 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Nadia Rivera Cruz
carolarita123@gmail.com
325 n pasadena Ave
azusa, California 91702

06/29/2020
Item 6