Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, Los Angeles County and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs as business returns. Please support a similar worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protection.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Subject: Worker Retention and Recall Ordinance

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Honorable Mayor Tornek, Honorable Councilmember Kennedy, and Honorable Pasadena Councilmembers,

As a concerned citizen and proud resident of Council District 3, I call on our city leaders to pass the Worker Retention and Recall Ordinance and to keep our city's promise to raise the minimum wage to $15 on July 1st. As you all know tourism is an essential industry in our city. The nearly 2,000 hospitality workers in Pasadena have been deviated by the COVID-19 crisis and it is a shameful act that they may not be hired back as the hospitality industry begins to recover. Additionally, the promise of a living wage offered through the 2016 law should not be another victim of the pandemic.

I am an educator with LA Unified and I stand with my unionized sisters and brothers of Unite Here, Local 11. I expect that our city will do the right and moral thing, ensuring justice for some of our hardest working and lowest paid workers in Pasadena. I will be watching the vote on this ordinance closely.

With regards,

Honorable Councilmembers,

Dear Councilmembers:

Please support our hotel workers in Pasadena (hell, hotel workers everywhere) especially during this time of COVID-19. Hotel workers are generally among the most vulnerable folks in our community—and, while we're here, they should be getting paid a fuck-ton more than they are getting paid—and absolutely should not be obligated to get back to work without the same appropriate precautions that hotel leadership and management are taking for themselves.

These workers are the ones who keep hotels going. They must be protected. Anything short of excellent protection for these workers is not just inhumane—it's inhuman.

Thank you for your support,

Gabrielle
