To: Joyce Streator, Vice Mayor, City of Pasadena
From: Jeanette K. Mills, Human Relations Commissioner
Subject: Human Relations Commission Letter of Resignation

After over a year and a half of serving out my appointment to the City of Pasadena's Human Relations Commission, I have chosen to tender my resignation effective Friday, September 29, 2000.

I sincerely appreciate all of the professional and personal opportunities that serving on the Human Relations Commission has afforded to me. In return, I trust that I have made significant contributions to the commission during my appointment. It's been a pleasure working with everyone, representing the City of Pasadena and the Northwest community as a Commissioner. The associations made during my appointment will truly be memorable for many, many years.

I've become proud of being part of a community that embraces diversity and human relations in words and in actions. The past year has been a very positive experience for me; hence, this decision was difficult, involving many hours of thoughtful consideration. My recent job assignments have made it necessary for me to travel out of the state as well as out of the country, making it virtually impossible to participate in the monthly mid-week meetings. As I respect the vision, goals and objectives of the Commission, I realize that it is critical for members to actively participate and contribute consistently, requirements that I cannot meet due to my current job responsibilities.

It will always be my pleasure to associate with Human Relations Commission and perhaps in the future our paths will again intersect.

I want to thank you for allowing me to be a part of the Commission. Please accept this resignation with best wishes and continued success. Please feel free to contact me at any time if I can be of further assistance in helping with a smooth transition, or support future Commission initiatives.

Re: Human Relations Commission

I am submitting a copy of the letter of resignation from Jeanette K. Mills for your records. Ms. Mills, who was appointed by Councilmember Joyce Streater, is working on a long-term assignment that has taken her out of the country until January 2001.

Give me a call if you have any questions at x.4234.
