

PASADENA PUBLIC LIBRARY
Policy for Use of Tuesday Musicale Pianos

The pianos housed in the Central Library Donald R. Wright Auditorium are the property of the Tuesday Musicale of Pasadena and are not owned by the City of Pasadena.

A fee of $60.00 for the use of one piano and $40.00 for the use of the second piano, is required by the Tuesday Musicale each time the pianos are used for the purpose of maintaining and tuning the pianos. [Please note that the second piano is being refurbished. Estimated time of completion is early to late fall 2009. Please do not reserve the second piano until the refurbishing is complete. Thank you for your patience.] The pianos are kept in tune at all times by the Tuesday Musicale and only the piano tuner authorized by the Tuesday Musicale may tune the pianos. The fee includes one-hour rehearsal time, subject to approval of time by Library Administration.

It is to be understood that this application does not include permission from the Tuesday Musicale to add any sort of materials to the piano or pianos for the purpose of "preparing" them for performance.

Please complete the attached form requesting application for use of the Tuesday Musicale pianos and return it with a check or money order made payable to Tuesday Musicale of Pasadena. In signing the application, you are assuming financial responsibility for any damage to the pianos during your use. Pianos are to be moved from storage to stage by library personnel only.

If you have any questions, please call Trudi Anderson at (818) 341-8929.

Thank you for your cooperation. The Library will forward your application to the officers of the Tuesday Musicale.
