Independent Accountant's Report on Agreed-Upon Procedures
Applied to Appropriation Limit Worksheets

We have applied the procedures enumerated below to the appropriations limit worksheets prepared by the City of Pasadena for the year ended June 30, 2007. These procedures, which were agreed to by the City of Pasadena, California and the League of California Cities (as presented in the League publication entitled Article XIII B Appropriations Limitation Uniform Guidelines) were performed solely to assist the City of Pasadena, California in meeting the requirements of Section 1.5 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

This engagement to apply agreed-upon procedures was performed in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of the procedures is solely the responsibility of the specified users of the report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

The procedures performed and the results of those procedures were as follows:

1. We obtained the worksheets referred to above and compared the limit and annual adjustment factors included in those worksheets to the limit and annual adjustment factors that were adopted by resolution of the City Council. We also compared the population and inflation options included in the aforementioned worksheets to those that were selected by a recorded vote of the City Council.

Results: No exceptions were noted as a result of our procedures.

2. We recalculated the mathematical computations reflected in the City worksheets.

Results: No exceptions were noted as a result of our procedures.

3. We compared the current year information used to determine the current year limit and found that it agreed to worksheets prepared by the City and to information provided by the State Department of Finance.

Results: No exceptions were noted as a result of our procedures.

4. We compared the amount of the prior year appropriations limit presented in the worksheets to the amount adopted by the City Council for the prior year.

Results: No exceptions were noted as a result of our procedures.

We were not engaged to, and did not, perform an audit, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the worksheets referred to above. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you. No procedures have been performed with respect to the determination of the appropriation limit for the base year, as defined by the League publication entitled Article XIII B Appropriations Limitation Uniform Guidelines.

This report is intended solely for the use of the City of Pasadena, California and is not intended to be and should not be used by those who have not agreed to the procedures and taken responsibility for the sufficiency of the procedures for their purposes.

Independent Accountant's Report on Agreed-Upon Procedures Applied to Employee Deductions for the Internal Revenue Code Section 457 Deferred Compensation Program

We have applied the procedures enumerated below to employee deductions for the internal revenue code section 457 deferred compensation program for the year ended June 30, 2007, which were agreed to by the City of Pasadena. The management of the City of Pasadena is responsible for the proper collecting, recording and remittance of deferred compensation funds. This engagement to apply agreed-upon procedures was performed in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of the procedures is solely the responsibility of the specified users of the report. Consequently, we make no representations regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

The procedures performed and the results of those procedures were as follows:

1. We selected four pay periods during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007 and traced the amounts withheld for the deferred compensation provider (Hartford) from the payroll report to the amount recorded in the benefits fund liability account payable to the provider.

Results: We noted that the amounts withheld for deferred compensation on the payroll reports were equal to the amounts recorded in the benefit fund liability account.

2. We agreed the amount withheld for the four pay periods selected to the payments made to the provider.

Results: We noted that the amounts paid to the provider were equal to the amounts reported on the deferred compensation payroll reports.

3. Internal Revenue Code Section 457 requires investment of employee contributions within fifteen days following the close of the month that included the pay date. We reviewed the four payments selected to determine if they were made within the required timeline:

Results: No exceptions were noted as a result of our procedures.
