To whom it may concern,

Effective today I am resigning from my post as a commissioner on the Code Enforcement Commission. It has been a wonderful experience for me, and I am very glad that I had the opportunity to participate. Unfortunately, the nature of my work means that I am forced to travel extensively, and it has put me in a situation where I am struggling to manage my personal life, let alone external activities. I am very grateful that I had the good fortune to contribute, and I wish all those that I have worked with the very best going forward.

Regards,
