

Eighth Guiding Principle Proposals

A vibrant public education system is valued and supported as the shared responsibility of our community.	IIPK original wording proposed (Spring 2011)
Pasadena will value and support a vibrant public education system.	Survey language that 70% strongly supported (June 2011)
Recognizing the relationship between education and economic prosperity, Pasadena is committed to community planning that supports vibrant educational resources responsive to the broad needs of our diverse community. Quality public schools are a fundamental element of the community fabric and a shared responsibility.	Michael Beck's proposal (February 2012)
Pasadena is committed to community planning that supports vibrant educational resources responsive to the broad needs of our diverse community. Quality public schools are a shared community responsibility.	Language proposed at City Council meeting (October 2012)
Pasadena is committed to community planning that supports vibrant educational resources responsive to the broad needs of our diverse community. Quality public schools are a shared community responsibility.	Current city version (March 2013)
Pasadena is committed to community planning that supports vibrant educational resources responsive to the broad needs of our diverse community. Recognizing the relationship between education and economic prosperity, a quality public school system is a fundamental element of this educational landscape and a shared community responsibility.	IIPK recommendation – utilize previous wording to bring into balance with language and tone of other guiding principles. (April, 2013)
Pasadena is committed to community planning that supports vibrant educational resources responsive to the broad needs of our diverse community. Recognizing the relationship between education and economic vitality, a quality public school system is a shared community responsibility.	Staff recommendation should Council wish to accept IIPK recommendation
Pasadena is committed to public education and a diverse educational system responsive to the broad needs of the community.	Councilmember Madison's suggested language which staff accepts (April 22)