

General Plan Land Use and Mobility Element Update

Road Map of the Environmental Impact Report

1) City hosts pre-scoping meetings

- Community meeting
- Transportation Advisory Commission
- Planning Commission

2) Staff and consultants prepare the initial study

3) City releases the Notice of Preparation. Staff receives comments at the following scoping meetings:

- Interactive open house workshop with the community
- Transportation Advisory Commission
- Planning Commission

4) Comment period under Notice of Preparation closes

5) Staff and consultants complete the Draft EIR

6) Draft EIR Released (60 Days). City receives comments at the following meetings:

- One meeting that all commissioners are invited to attend
- Community meeting focused on general members of the public

7) Staff and consultants prepare Final EIR

8) Final EIR Released

- Community meeting
- Review and recommendation by Planning Commission
- Review and recommendation by Transportation Advisory Commission
- Review, approval, and certification by City Council

 Period for public input