In response to Councilmember Gordo, Patricia Bowie, UCLA Center for Healthier Children, Families and Communities, reported on her findings (on a community-wide basis) relating to the preparedness/well-being of children entering kindergarten.

Vice Mayor Robinson agreed on the need to take action as soon as possible as it relates to adopting the policy and funding the position, thanked all individuals involved in the process, stressed the importance for a "complete support system", specifically in terms of linking all available opportunities in the City that are beneficial to children, young adults, and families in the community, and the need for adequate funding and staffing to move such programs forward.

Councilmember Madison expressed his gratitude to the members of the Commission and to all others involved in the effort for their work, stated his support for the staff recommendation, amended to include the immediate funding and reinstatement of the Early Child Development Coordinator position, and direction to staff to return with information regarding the location and reporting structure for the position.

In response to Councilmember Kennedy's question, the City Manager noted that there is savings in the Human Services & Recreation Department's budget that can fund the Early Child Development Coordinator position without an additional appropriation. He also noted that he along with input from City staff and the community will evaluate the position's reporting structure and determine whether the City Manager's Office, or another department, would be a more appropriate location for the position.

Councilmember McAustin and Tornek expressed concerns as it relates to the budgetary implications of funding the position immediately, and stated that it would be more appropriate for the City Council to publicly examine the inclusion of the Early Child Development Coordinator position as part of the upcoming budget discussion/process. However, noted that the statistical data available and the work of the citizens and non-profits on the matter, highlights its critical need in the community, and, therefore, stated support for the amended staff recommendation.

Following discussion, it was moved by Councilmember Gordo, seconded by Vice Mayor Robinson, to approve staff recommendations 1-4; with Recommendation No. 5 amended to fund a position of an Early Child Development Coordinator position as an ongoing annual expense of $118,363, and an additional $15,000 for services and supplies totaling $133,363; and direct staff to report back to the City Council with information regarding the location and reporting structure for the position. (Motion unanimously carried) (Absent: None)

REPORT FROM FLINTRIDGE CENTER (Oral presentation)

The Mayor introduced the agenda item.

Jaylene Moseley, President of the Flintridge Center, Brian Biery, Flintridge Center Director of Community Organizing, and Ricky Pickens, Flintridge Center Director of Prevention and Intervention Services, provided an update on the on-going work of the Flintridge Center as a community-based non-profit organization to serve as institutional home and convener of local violence prevention and intervention providers.

Vice Mayor Robinson expressed her support for additional funding for the Flintridge Center as the City's "institutional home" addressing community violence, and noted the appropriate timing for the discussion considering the City Council's upcoming budget sessions on prioritizing budget items.

The following community members/organizations spoke in strong support of the Flintridge Center, and requested the City Council's continued funding to ensure the organization's work is sustained in the community:

Pastor Jean Burch, Community Bible Church of Greater Pasadena
Kerwin Manning, President of the Clergy Community Coalition
Pastor Mayra Macedo-Nolan, Lake Avenue Church
Eric Johnson, Lake Avenue Community Foundation
Edson C. Morgan, Jr., Pasadena resident
Daniel Torres, Pasadena resident
Steven Rogers, Dignity and Power Now

In response to questions by Vice Mayor Robinson, Ms. Moseley suggested the Flintridge Center could be further supported by the City in terms of advocating for funding assistance from local foundations and community organizations, participating in strategic planning to better focus the work of the Flintridge Center as the institutional home in addressing community violence, considering a hotel tax or other alternative funding methods such as social impact bonds, and exploring new ways to look at resource development.

Councilmember Gordo indicated his support for the City to participate in the Flintridge Center's strategic planning process, and urged the organization to invite appropriate City departments. He also suggested that at the conclusion of the strategic planning process, the City Council as a whole could work to encourage local foundations and organizations to donate and give support to the strategic plan.

Councilmember Kennedy thanked the community members present that spoke in support for the Flintridge Center and efforts to end violence in the community, stated his support for the Center and its partners, and expressed his desire to participate in the efforts of finding additional money and resources to continue the work of building a better community. He also suggested that the City Council consider adopting a resolution in support of Flintridge Center.

Councilmember Tornek commented on the expressed need for regional funding, reminded the City Council that there will be a discussion on area violence at the upcoming meeting with the Los Angeles County Supervisor, Michael Antonovich, and suggested that a discussion be initiated at that time in terms of seeking support from the County for the Flintridge Center. He also stated his support for reaching out to public and private funding sources, and noted the need to gain visibility as it relates to some of the issues.

Councilmember Gordo suggested that the City ask the Los Angeles County Sheriff/Probation Department's to provide a report on reintegration efforts, including information from the Los Angeles County Supervisor's Office on whether there are plans for the aforementioned agencies to partner with community groups on reintegration outside of law enforcement.

Vice Mayor Robinson requested that staff further study some of the creative ways to help fund the work of the Flintridge Center, specifically as it relates to social impact bonds, to see if that is a mechanism the City can pursue to fund this type of work. She also stated for the record that the Los Angeles County Supervisor, Michael Antonovich has been supportive of the coalition's work. However, she indicated that additional support, in terms of funding is greatly needed.

Following discussion, by consensus, and on order of the Mayor, the information was received.

(Resolution No. 9420)

The City Clerk summarized the agenda report, and provided election statistics, as part of a PowerPoint presentation.

In response to Councilmember McAustin, Mr. Jomsky stated that the issue related to an all vote-by-mail election could be raised with the Charter Reform Task Force for consideration, as well as how the City might be impacted as a result of Assembly Bill (AB) 254, which proposes to change the election dates of local General Law cities and requiring them to consolidate with County and State elections dates; and suggested that the matter be brought to the attention of the Legislative Policy Committee.

The Mayor stated that before the mandate for the Charter Reform Task Force is finalized, the matter should be agendized for the full City Council's consideration in April or May 2015, with notifications to the public regarding the City forming a Charter Reform Task Force to be sent out in April 2015.
