RECOMMENDATIONS FROM OFFICERS AND DEPARTEMENTS

HERITAGE SQUARE SOUTH DEVELOPMENT PROCESS AND AUTHORIZATION TO NEGOTIATE A DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT WITH BRIDGE HOUSING

Recommendation: It is recommended that the City Council take the following actions:

- (1) Find that the proposed action is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") in accordance with State CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3), the "general rule" that CEQA only applies to projects that may have an effect on the environment; and
- (2) Authorize the City Manager to enter into negotiations with Bridge Housing to become the developer for a mixed-use project on the City-owned property known as Heritage Square South without competitive selection based upon the best interests of the City, as set forth in the agenda report, and to return to City Council with a proposed Development Agreement after completion of a community outreach process. Competitive bidding is not required pursuant to City Charter Section 1002(F) (Professional or Unique Services).

William Huang, Director of Housing and Career Services, presented a PowerPoint presentation on the agenda item, and responded to questions. Jim Wong, Senior Project Manager, responded to questions regarding the sources of funding related to the project. Kimberly McKay, Executive Vice President, and Anna Slaby, Senior Project Manager, representing BRIDGE

Housing, and Donna Hess, Heritage Property Manager, responded to question regarding local hiring, local sourcing of materials related to the proposed project, and residents of the Heritage Square North facility.

Vice Mayor Kennedy praised BRIDGE Housing representatives for the service and leadership provided to the residents of Heritage Housing North; but stated his preference that the project developer be chosen through a Request for Proposal (RFP) process.

Councilmember Hampton encouraged BRIDGE Housing and City staff to continue efforts in engaging the local community for the proposed project; and asked staff to consider any action that can be taken to expedite the approval process to complete the project.

Councilmember Gordo suggested that the proposed project be distinct in its architectural design when compared with the Heritage Square North building; and stated the need for staff to assess the operator's ability to identify and leverage funding to complete the project. He requested that staff meet with Los Angeles County and Housing and Urban Development (HUD) staff to secure a specific number of dedicated project-based vouchers for the proposed project, avoid any negative impacts to the City's affordable housing inventory; and requested periodic reports on milestones achieved for the project. Councilmember Gordo stated his preference that the City retain control of the property, and asked staff to investigate options in entering into a long-term lease agreement.

Councilmember Madison disconnected telephonically and was excused at 7:18 p.m.

Councilmember McAustin spoke in favor of the staff recommendation; and asked staff to consider expediting affordable housing projects through the City's approval process.

Councilmember Wilson echoed Councilmember Gordo's comments related to the architectural design of the proposed project, stating his preference that the two developments maintain separate distinctive design features, and expressed concerns with the projects' budget and parking ratio requirements for the project.

The following individuals spoke in favor of the staff recommendation, and provided comments and/or suggestions:

Peter C. Hartgens, Pasadena resident
Dorothy Keane, League of Women Voters, Pasadena Area
Anthony Manousos, Greater Pasadena Affordable Housing
Group (GPAHG)

George Patton, Throop Church Pasadena
Anne Fox, LA Voice
Ryan Izell, Union Station Homeless Services
Mercy Young, GPAHG
Jill Shook, GPAHG
Erica Nellessen, Pasadena resident
Charla Bolton, residence not stated
Rev. Connie Millsap, GPAHG
Adam Bray-Ali, Pasadena resident
John Stewart, Pasadena resident

Following discussion, it was moved by Vice Mayor Kennedy, seconded by Councilmember Hampton, to approve the staff recommendation, incorporating comments made to staff to expedite the project, investigate options to maintain City ownership of the land (utilizing a long-term lease agreement), secure project-based vouchers for the population that is in Pasadena. (Motion unanimously carried) (Absent: Councilmember Madison)

AMENDMENT TO THE OCCUPANCY INSPECTION PROGRAM AND FISCAL YEAR 2019 GENERAL FEE SCHEDULE

Recommendation:

- (1) Find that the proposed action is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") in accordance with Section 15061(b)(3), the General Rule that CEQA only applies to projects that may have an effect on the environment; and
- (2) Adopt a resolution amending the Fiscal Year (FY) 2019 General Fee Schedule as detailed in the "Proposed Fee Schedule Amendment" section of the agenda report. (Resolution No. 9704)

David Reyes, Director of Planning and Community Development, provided introductory comments, and Israel Del Toro, Acting Code Compliance Manager, provided a PowerPoint presentation on the item, and responded to questions.

Following discussion, it was moved by Councilmember Hampton, seconded by Councilmember Wilson, to approve the staff recommendation. (Motion unanimously carried) (Absent: Councilmember Madison)

ORDINANCE – FIRST READING

Conduct first reading of "AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PASADENA AMENDING PASADENA MUNICIPAL CODE TITLE 14, CHAPTER 14.16 TO AMEND THE OCCUPANCY INSPECTION PROGRAM AND ADDING A NEW CHAPTER 14.17 ENTITLED "PRESALE SELF-CERTIFICATION PROGRAM"

David Reyes, Director of Planning and Community Development, responded to questions related to the on-line portal for the Presale Self-Certification Program.

Councilmember Hampton requested that staff provide an update to the City Council on the effectiveness of the program in one year.

Lisa Diaz, Pasadena Foothill Association of Realtors, spoke in favor of the staff recommendation; thanked staff for their work, and stated her preference that the City eliminates the single family Occupancy Inspection Program.

The Mayor spoke in opposition to the ordinance, expressing concerns that the self-certification process will result in an increased number of unpermitted additions in the City, and lead to public safety concerns and issues.

Following discussion, the above ordinance was offered for first reading by Councilmember Hampton:

AYES: Councilmembers Gordo, Hampton, Masuda,
McAustin, Wilson, Vice Mayor Kennedy
NOES: Mayor Tornek
ABSENT: Councilmember Madison

PUBLIC COMMENT ON MATTERS NOT ON THE AGENDA (Continued)

The following individuals advocated for the City to consider posting a reward for information on the murder of Monte Russell, as well as rewards for other unsolved murders cases in Pasadena:

Kristina Russell, Altadena resident
Montevia Russell, Fontana resident
Danielle Banks, Upland resident
Aaron Trice, Pasadena resident
Lawanda Hawkins, Justice for Murdered Children
Demicha Lofton-Thomas, residence not stated
Carol Jackson, Altadena resident

The following individuals advocated for the continued operation of existing medical marijuana dispensaries and commercial cannabis businesses in the City:

Alma R. Gavia, Pasadena resident
Shaun Szameit, Pasadena resident

Following public comment, Councilmember Hampton requested an update on the number of unsolved murder cases being investigated by the Pasadena Police Department (PPD).

In response to Councilmember Hampton, City Manager Merme stated he would meet with staff and provide an update to the Family on Mr. Monte Russell's case, as well as provide an update on unsolved murder cases being investigated by PPD to the Public Safety Committee.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Vice Mayor Kennedy thanked the City Council, City staff, and the community for their support in the Robinson Park Recreation Center Grand Re-Opening event held on Saturday, January 26, 2019.

Councilmember McAustin and the Mayor spoke on the Marshall Fundamental School, "Housing Innovation Project" event, held on Friday, January 25, 2019 where they participated as panelists.

Councilmember Wilson spoke on the Annual "Martin Luther King Holiday Celebration," held on Monday, January 21, 2019, at McKinley Elementary School, which was sponsored by the City in collaboration with the Pasadena Unified School District and the Martin Luther King Community Coalition. The event was well attended by students, community members and leaders, the Rose Court, volunteers, and various other prominent attendees.

The Mayor spoke on the "Every Person Has A Name" event, a 25-hour community-wide Holocaust remembrance ceremony held at City Hall, which began on January 26, 2019 at 7:00 p.m., and concluded on January 27, 2019 at 8:00 p.m. He also spoke on a Buddhist Temple luncheon birthday celebration that was held on Sunday, January 27, 2019; and remarked on the many diverse and unique community events and activities held in Pasadena.
