Council Member McAustin,

I urge you to vote for meaningful police oversight and other reforms to the Pasadena Police Department.

The vast majority of our Pasadena PD officers are well-intentioned and want to be in harmony with the community, and our Chief has done an admirable job trying to find a balance between public safety and freedom of expression. However, Pasadena has a history of problematic use-of-force incidents, including a traffic stop that led to the beating of Christopher Ballew. We need a police oversight body that consists of an independent auditor, and an oversight board with subpoena power and an enforceable disciplinary role.

Over time, the role of a police officer has evolved far from fighting crime and enforcing the law. Police officers are required to spend their time on situations that could be better addressed by specialists in other areas, specialists who would not carry weapons. Homelessness and traffic enforcement are two areas where we should investigate other ways to manage these problems rather than using armed officers. This website has additional ideas for how to approach this issue: <https://www.joincampaignzero.org/>

Police reform is not a cure-all for our budget woes, but over time it could become a way to more appropriately meet the needs in our community while conserving scarce City resources.

Thank you,

Blair Miller

Subject: *Important: Police Oversight, an Urgent Matter

Dear Councilmembers, kindly read this letter, in its entirety, and search your conscience for guidance, regardless of political allegiance and organizational ties.

Thank you for considering community oversight for the Pasadena Police Department (PPD). We want an effectual oversight body with meaningful authority. The proposed structure provides oversight in name only.

Pasadenans deserve better. We call upon you to promptly Amend the City Charter to create effective community oversight.

The international conscience awakening activated by George Floyd's murder by Minneapolis police could have easily originated in Pasadena.

When Pasadena Police Officers killed Reginald Thomas in front of his family in 2016, the family lawsuit stated "An unknown officer put a knee onto Mr. Thomas' neck and applied the full weight of his body onto the throat area of Mr. Thomas until he was speechless and finally lifeless, intentionally squeezing the life out of Mr. Thomas."

Unlike George Floyd's killing, bystanders did not video Thomas' killing and officers wore no body cameras.

Instead of the Pasadena Police Department providing transparency and accountability, Pasadena taxpayers footed the $1.5 million settlement bill and officers reportedly received no disciplinary action.

Pasadena Police Officers shot unarmed, 19 year old high school football star, Kendrec McDade, four times from the front and three times from the back and then their police car nearly rolled over his body in 2012.

When the Office of Independent Review's report of this incident described "repeated tactical errors," and that neither officer was disciplined, the Pasadena Police Officers' Association obtained a court order sealing the report from public view.

Councilmembers, please do not expect us to believe that PPD will voluntarily cooperate fully with an oversight body lacking subpoena power.

The Los Angeles Board of Supervisors recently voted to grant subpoena power to their Civilian Oversight Commission after LAPD repeatedly stonewalled their efforts to obtain highly relevant information.

If we continue on the path of oversight in name only, we risk perpetuating a city legacy of clandestine behavior, expensive legal settlements and unnecessary loss of life.

Truly Effective Oversight of the Pasadena Police Department has the potential to:

1. Improve Community Safety by Holding Officers Accountable for Inappropriate Actions
2. Build Community Trust by Increasing Transparency between PPD and the Community
3. Save Taxpayers Millions of Dollars in Legal Settlements

The community's demand for impactful oversight of the Pasadena Police Department is neither temporary nor a fad. It won't fade with a shift of major news headlines.

You can make a difference. The time is now. Your votes on this matter have lasting implications, both for our city and for your future prospects as a respectable elected official within it.

We request fundamental tools to make Pasadena safer for citizens and police officers.

We demand prompt Amendment of the City Charter creating effective community oversight with subpoena power and an enforceable disciplinary role.

Thank you for your consideration,

Concerned Pasadena Citizens of B.R.E.A.T.H.E. Justice 365

Comments:

I am a Pasadena resident, business owner, teacher and PUSD parent. It is important to stress that myself and my family are in support of the Pasadena Community Bill of Rights written by NAACP and NDLON. The proposal being put forth today is NOT by any means sufficient nor a step towards providing any meaningful police oversight power to Pasadena civilians. If there is nothing to hide, there is nothing to fear. However, empowering our citizens to ensure transparent policing of our city would foster trust and collaboration that can lead to more just law enforcement policies and interactions. We must be given true power to influence decisions and impose consequences for officers that violate the law and abuse their privileges. If the charter must be changed, it must be changed. This is what the majority of your constituents want, this is what is just and way overdue. What legacy will you leave behind for your children and our children? When given the opportunity to make true change, ask yourselves what side of history will you be on - those that went with status quo to save face or those that were brave and justice driven? Make the history you will be proud of!!

I'm a resident of Council District 4.

The Pasadena City Council needs to amend the City Charter to create a police oversight body consisting of an independent auditor and selected community members with subpoena power and an enforceable disciplinary role.

The current proposal does not grant any meaningful power to our communities which councilmembers have been elected to serve.

Pasadena citizens deserve better.

Please vote to amend the City Charter.

Dear Mayor Tornek and Pasadena City Council Members,

I support the proposal for a Community Police Oversight Commission as described in Agenda Report dated July 22, 2020 from Terry Tornek, Mayor, and John Kennedy, Public Safety Committee Chair, to the Public Safety Committee. I have great respect for our police force but I also realize that today's police force is dealing with a lot more than safety and criminal issues.

Indeed, as the Agenda Report points out, there is a conversation about this topic at all levels of government in this country.

The City of Pasadena should be engaging in that discussion too.

However, civilian oversight must be done carefully and with respect for the police force and all the issues that they deal with. And similarly, the police force must respect the concerns of the oversight committee. Respect on both sides and willingness to listen and learn is essential!!! I feel that this recommendation is an excellent one—and it can be undertaken without a lot of delay.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dianne Magee

Comments:

My name is Mayra Macedo-Nolan. I am a pastor at Lake Avenue Church, on the board of the Clergy Community Coalition (CCC), and a member of the Racial Justice Coalition of Greater Pasadena. I am grateful the proposal by Council member Kennedy & Mayor Tornek, yet it falls short of what the communities most impacted by the negative aspects of policing are asking for. Black and brown communities are tired of the lack of will to date by the City Council to enact policy that protects the most vulnerable people in our community. The time to do this “right” is now. Not in two years. We’ve elected you to represent us and enact the will of the people. As a faith leader, I believe it is also your responsibility to ensure that the most vulnerable among us are protected and their voices represented well. The council must prioritize & improve on the current proposal. The Clergy in our community care deeply about justice, are talking regularly, and are prepared to take action to ensure that the community we love is a just place for all people to dwell. May God help you pursue creating a more just Pasadena.

Comments:

Mr. Gordo, please set your campaign aside and read the community's comments instead of speculating. We want effective COMMUNITY oversight with subpoena power and an enforceable disciplinary role. We are fatigued of elected officials taking money from, and pledging allegiance to, the PPOA while promising the community transparency and accountability.

Ms. McAustin, your clarity is appreciated. Note: District representation is as important as gender representation. Issues and policing of Northwest Pasadena (Black and Brown citizens) are very different than those in other regions.

Mr. Mermell, how does one objectively quantify kicks and punches used by the police department? True, we can learn from every event, especially those involving the loss of life. Disciplining officers for inappropriate actions constitutes the BEST way police officers learn from their actions.

All Councilmembers: What the community proposes is not far-fetched. The LA Board of Supervisors voted to grant subpoena power to their Civilian Oversight Commission after LAPD repeatedly stonewalled their efforts to obtain information.

Chief Perez' citizen oversight board role in his own community is commendable. What's troubling is that Mr. Perez and many PPD officers do not live within our Pasadena communities. It's easier to de-escalate instead of apply excessive force or kill your neighbor.

Comments:

I am confused. I am not a political expert like the councilmembers, but there seems to be only 1 critical issue on the table tonight. 1. Do we want a community oversight commission, yes. 2. Do we need more input/discussion on the Make up of the commission, appointed, elected, number, criteria etc., yes. 3. If the city charter will not allow subpoena power and other requested changes w/o a ballot measure can we add theses elements at the ballot box in the future, yes. 4. Has this concept been vetted previously by the council, yes. Where do we not agree? Are the two proposals mutually exclusive or can they be merged into two parts? Yes. Demagoguery does not serve us well here councilmembers! I personally am frustrated. My cousin was killed by the police in 1993!! It is time to get some reform on the books. Councilmember Madison is right, you are elected to represent the community! Work it out! Answer to Councilmembers Hamptons question about subpoena power under the charter if possible (theoretically) should be yes. Would make ballot measure moot. Our Police Chief supports oversight!

Comments:

Hello, my name is Paula and I am a resident of Council district 1.

My comments refer to Agenda Items 12 and 13 regarding review of civilian oversight of the Pasadena Police Department and revision to the City Charter.

All police officers need to be held accountable. Pasadena residents deserve to know when an officer uses force unlawfully especially when it causes injury or death to the victim, or when an officer is using racial profiling to harass residents, or when the department is using surveillance technology like facial recognition. Today, that is not case.

Creating strong civilian oversight of the Police Department is a tangible step the city can take to re-imagine how police duties and public safety are performed in our community.

I am calling on the City Council to create a community police oversight commission and a full-time Independent Police Auditor position.

The community police oversight commission should be selected from the community and consist entirely of non-law enforcement appointees. The auditor should have the authority to provide civilian oversight of the department including subpoena power, selecting the commission staff and reporting to the City Council.

Please place a City Charter Amendment on the ballot.
