Honorable Councilmembers,

Please help our most vulnerable workers and pass this law that will allow hotel workers a right to return to their jobs when it's safe to do so! We need work work together to support our essential workers.

Thank you for your service (and support)

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protection they deserve.

Pasadena workers deserved to have their jobs protected. Don't let wealthy corporations fire there experienced workers due to COVID-19 only to hire a whole new work force at lower wages. The City Council has the power to protect our workers, do not give in to hotel companies and other corporations trying to profit off the hard labor of Pasadena's workers.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Workers in the hospitality industry are among the hardest hit during the current COVID-19 public health crisis. Many have had hours severely cut, been laid off or terminated. The uncertainty of whether and when they will be able to return to work is devastating to workers.

Pasadena should provide a lifeline to hospitality workers by passing a right of recall and retention policy, so workers laid off because of the pandemic are guaranteed the ability to return to their jobs when the crisis subsides. A similar set of policies were recently passed by Glendale, the City of Long Beach and Los Angeles County.

I am asking that the City put workers' needs on the agenda and pass a worker recall and retention law.

Thanks you for your support.
