Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, Los Angeles County and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs as business returns. Please support a similar worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protection.

Honorable Councilmembers,

As a Pasadena voter and social worker, I would like to call on you to support hotel workers in Pasadena. Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protection they deserve.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

The City has done well by businesses in this Covid 19 crisis. Now we need to do the same for hospitality workers with an ordinance on Monday's Council Agenda.
