

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sarah Minslow <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:49 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Sarah Minslow
sminslow@gmail.com
300 N El Molino AVE, Unit 115
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Hannah Johnson <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:48 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Please read: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Hannah Johnson
kj.hannah@gmail.com
1180 N Catalina Ave
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jessica Hendricks <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:46 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Jessica Hendricks
jesserenee03@gmail.com
917 Beverly Way Atadena Ca
Altadena, California 91001

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Katelyn Foggiano <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:46 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Katelyn Foggiano
katie.foggiano@gmail.com
29 Marion Ave. 3
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Francisco Vargas <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:53 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Francisco Vargas
franciscovargas0517@gmail.com
144 e Avenue 33 apt 4
Los Angeles, California 90031

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Helen Ruppel <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:52 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Helen Ruppel
ruppelhelen@gmail.com
295 S. Madison, #2
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Mark Nelson <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:51 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/ Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, Los Angeles County and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs as business returns. Please support a similar worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protection.

Mark Nelson
markthenelson@gmail.com
601 E Del Mar Blvd
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Angelo Yenke <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:51 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Angelo Yenke
ayenko88@gmail.com
226 Fillmore St
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Nune Wheeler <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:51 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Nune Wheeler
nune.boyadjian@gmail.com
1187 Lincoln Ave
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sarabeth Tucek <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:49 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Sarabeth Tucek
sarabethtucek@gmail.com
1200 n Catalina ave
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Paul Gersten <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:56 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Support Right of Recall / Worker Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protection they deserve.

It's the least we can do for our wage earners. Don't abandon them during this crisis!

Paul Gersten
paul.gerstenb@gmail.com
257 E Calaveras Street
Altadena, California 91001

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sofia Alvarado <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:55 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Sofia Alvarado
sofiaalvarado159@gmail.com
788 N Madison Ave
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Elissa Boghosian <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:55 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

My name is Elissa, and I have been a lifelong resident of Pasadena, CA. I write this letter in support of Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Elissa Boghosian
boghosian.elissa@gmail.com
1375 Kenyon Street NW Apt 424
Washington, DC, District of Columbia 20010

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Nyah T <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:53 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Nyah T
nyahbenae@gmail.com
1327 S San Gabriel Blvd
San Gabriel, California 91776

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Madison Fitts <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:58 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Madison Fitts
madisonfitts4@gmail.com
401 E Washington Blvd Apt. 5
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: janet petersen <jpg5247@att.net>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:58 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/ Support a Right of Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

janet petersen
jpg5247@att.net
3444Calle Azul Unit A
Laguna Woods, California 92637

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Paula DeVaughn <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:56 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Paula DeVaughn
mzpd795@yahoo.com
1866 Mentone Ave
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sara Lyons <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:56 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Sara Lyons
salexandra@gmail.com
75 marion ave apt 3
Pasadena, California 91106

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jacqueline Ruiz <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 3:56 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Jacqueline Ruiz
ruiz.jackie16@gmail.com
1241 N Fair Oaks Ave
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Jose Luis Correa <jkcorrea@beaconmedianews.com>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:03 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Jose Luis Correa
jkcorrea@beaconmedianews.com
747 North Chester Ave
Pasadena, California 91104

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Sara Pellegrini <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:03 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Comment on Item #6/Right of Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Sara Pellegrini
snpellegrini@yahoo.com
543 W Montana St
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Natalia Ramos <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:03 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Natalia Ramos
nat.lia411@gmail.com
919 Raymond Ave
Pasadena, California 91103

06/29/2020
Item 6

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Kevin Margulis <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:02 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs. These extremely difficult circumstances and economic uncertainty are greatly exacerbated when workers do not have a commitment that they will be able to return to their jobs when business conditions improve. That is the experience of long-time workers at the Langham Huntington Hotel here in Pasadena.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

After 9/11, the City of Santa Monica passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced by the economic impact of 9/11 would return to work. Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County of Los Angeles recently passed similar policies to deal with the economic insecurity wrought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please support a similar law here in Pasadena.

Kevin Margulis
kevinmargulis@yahoo.com
1145 E Howard St
Pasadena, California 91104

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Abigail Valdez <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:02 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Support Item #6/Recall and Retention for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Pasadena's housekeepers, cooks and dishwashers built our city's hotel industry through their backbreaking work, and now these low-wage workers are among the hardest hit by the COVID-19 crisis. Glendale, the City and County of Los Angeles, and Long Beach have done the right thing and passed common sense policies that will ensure hotel workers a right to return to their same jobs when business returns.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Please support a worker recall and retention law to ensure Pasadena hotel workers have the same protections other workers in our region have.

Abigail Valdez
avaldezcardoza@gmail.com
1964 North Summit Avenue
Pasadena, California 91103

Martinez, Ruben

---

From: Britta Sterling <info@email.actionnetwork.org>
Sent: Sunday, June 28, 2020 4:05 PM
To: Public Comment
Subject: Item #6/ Retention and Recall for Hospitality Workers

CAUTION: This email was delivered from the Internet. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know the content is safe.

Honorable Councilmembers,

Thousands of hard-working hospitality workers, including many Pasadena residents, have lost their jobs.

After suspending operations of the hotel on April 8th, management of the Langham Huntington sent letters to workers at the end of May saying they "made the difficult decision to permanently separate" with the workers, terminating their employment as of May 28th. Despite the workers' contributions to the hotel, the company did not make any commitment to recall them when business resumes.

Glendale, the City of Long Beach, and the County and City of Los Angeles recently passed a right of recall policy to ensure that hotel workers displaced because due to the COVID-19 pandemic would be rehired. Please support the Pasadena recall and retention law to ensure our hard-working hospitality workers also get the protections they deserve.

Britta Sterling
brittalee.sterling@gmail.com
420 N Oakland Ave Apt 6
Pasadena, California 91101

06/29/2020
Item 6