size fits all approach of the State does not work here, and frankly it is not needed. We are a city that takes care of each other, working to find solutions. We are working hard to solve this problem and are making great strides. Pasadena will grow and develop, but if that growth and development is not done thoughtfully we will lose the city we love. Our path forward must be driven by our elected leaders with the support and vision of the people that live here. Not developers.

We hope that you continue to stand strong for the people who have placed their trust in you. All of Pasadena is looking to you to protect the community we love.
