Comments:

Pasadena Heritage supports the Mansionization Ordinance and Historic Preservation Ordinance Amendments that will be read for the first time today. These Zoning Code changes will have impacts in preventing some of the more egregious projects we have seen in Pasadena. We commend Planning Staff for their hard work and completing these ordinances even in a difficult year. When time allows, we also hope there will be some kind of community workshop where Staff can explain the changes to homeowners and realtors, and we offer to help in any way we can with that effort.

Consent given to read my comments out loud: Yes
