To Whom it May Concern:

This email is to share my support of Pat Amsbry

Safe and prosperous City governance does not just happen. It takes a hardworking team of professionals and volunteers working together towards one goal: the greater good.

When I think of the word hardworking, I think of Pat Amsbry. I've known Pat both personally and professionally for the past decade and have been impressed by his leadership and a willingness to roll up his sleeves and get the job done.

I applaud all our volunteers who spend countless hours in pursuit of a better City for our future. Pat, however, goes above and beyond the call of duty; and as a fellow parent and business owner with two sons myself, I am not sure where he gets his boundless energy. I am also struck by his compassion and commitment. At a time like this, it is important to have empathy and compassion. Pat embodies these characteristics, which is one of the many reasons he has my support.

CITY CLERK
CITY OF PASADENA

February 3, 2021

Dear Pasadena City Council members,

I write today to comment on Patrick Amsbry's candidacy for Council Member for District 5. I was born, raised and educated in the Pasadena area, graduated from Polytechnic School, and after further education and life experiences around the country and abroad, I returned here to Pasadena with my husband to raise our two children, work in private practice as a Clinical Psychologist, and give back to this community I love through volunteer work in various capacities, including at the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center. I recommend Pat to serve this city based on almost 18 years of having known him to demonstrate great personal enthusiasm, generosity, hard work and good will towards people and endeavors in which he believes. I am confident that Pat wants to serve the city of Pasadena, and that he will bring these demonstrated strengths wholeheartedly to the position if given the chance.

I first met Pat Amsbry and his wife Kate when our children, who are now in college, were entering preschool together. In addition to enjoying the entire Amsbry family as we occupied the same young family spaces surrounding school events, socializing with groups of friends and summer swim team league, I was specifically impressed with Pat's friendliness and energy. Pat was always involved, inclusive, hard working and joyful. He fostered adventurous and enriching opportunities for his immediate and extended family, as well as for his friends and acquaintances. Pat is a true connector of people. He notes and remembers details about others' histories and interests. He appears to find true happiness bringing potentially catalytic meetings of individuals and groups about, simply because he has spotted an overlap and therefore the potential for something good to result from their coming together. Pat's wife and sons are all marvelous and impressive people, as well, and I believe that the obvious devotion and constructiveness within their family and in their giving outward focus is a further recommendation for Pat and his character.

In recent years I have witnessed some of Pat's philanthropic efforts and have been impressed again and again by his personal generosity. When he sees a need, Pat puts his money, his hospitality and his time into bringing groups together in order to address that need, whether by facilitating the collection of books for children or bringing the best minds and efforts to a large facility's management. I have been honored to serve on the Rose Bowl Aquatics Center's Board of Directors under Pat's leadership. I have witnessed his level of care for that non-profit institution's programs, patrons, employees and mission lead him, sometimes with great emotion, to devote practically full-time-job hours to its service as the COVID-19 pandemic and other issues have challenged operations. Pat Amsbry is a generously passionate person and I believe the Pasadena City Council and District 5 would benefit from allowing his efforts to be focused on their service.

Sincerely,
Alison E. Laster, Ph.D.

I have been a Pasadena Resident for the Past 30 years. During this period I have been an active proponent of Community volunteerism and improvement. It was through this commitment that I had the pleasure of meeting Pat. He also is an active supporter of Pasadena, and to this day he remains committed supporting efforts that make Pasadena the great embracing City that it is. Pat is well known in the community as an advocate for engagement in actions and activities that supports us all. He models the behavior that one expects in a leader and he was an earlier adapter of diversity and inclusion. I have had the experience and benefit of his leadership while serving on the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center Board. I have witnessed firsthand his passion and effectiveness with respect to service and leadership. Pat has displayed the acumen and capabilities that would serve the District and the City well, and I strongly support his appointment.

Dear Pasadena City Council Members - I am a 20+ year resident of Pasadena and an active community volunteer and leader at Planned Parenthood Advocates Pasadena, Polytechnic School and College Access Plan. I have appreciated Pat Amsbry's support and engagement with all three of these important community organizations/institutions. I know from first-hand experience how committed he is to doing good in our community and to the principles of equity. I admire the work he has done at the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center to provide access to swimming lessons to PUSD students, and I was so impressed with how he immediately stepped forward to volunteer to distribute meals to PUSD families when the COVID-19 crisis hit and is now volunteering with the vaccination effort. Pat is a strong leader, decision-maker, consensus builder and an incredible human. I am confident he would represent the constituents of District 5 well and thoughtfully advocate for positive change in Pasadena to benefit all residents. I wish I had the opportunity to vote for him, and I strongly encourage the Council to appoint him!

Thank you for your consideration,
Jennifer Thibault

I am writing to support Pat Amsbry to replace Victor Gordo for the District 5 City Council seat. I have known Pat for close to 20 years and find him a kind, generous, tireless supporter of his community. I have worked with him on many volunteer projects, he is thoughtful, inclusive, incredibly creative and effective. There is no job or task he won't take on and he always gets it done. Pat is a pleasure to work with and his experience and passion will be a great addition to our fine city council. He is a small business owner in Pasadena and will bring a strong set of skills and leadership to our council, representing all stakeholders. The demands of city council member are huge and Pat is well poised to work for the city well beyond the minimum weekly requirement, his office is minutes from City Hall. His broad career background and volunteer experience will bring much needed expertise on the wide range of matters that come before the council. Please support Pat Amsbry as the next City Councilman for District 5. Thank you, Eileen Williamson, (Real estate investment manager and Chair of Pasadena Park and Recreation Commission,)

I am writing in support of Pat Amsbry's candidacy for city council to fill Victor Gordo's seat. I have known Pat for 20 years since our boys started Pre-school together. Pat has unquestionable integrity, is hard working and principled. He has been deeply involved in the Pasadena community through his children's' schools, the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center, Boy Scouts, Civitas and the community at large.

I am certain that Pat would be an exceptional addition to the City Council and Pasadena would be lucky to have the benefit of his talents.

To whom it may concern:

I wish to throw my unequivocal support for candidate Pat Amsbry for Pasadena City Council district 5. Pat's integrity, poise, intelligence, common sense, and honesty is precisely what small government needs, especially now when so many politicians choose to ignore reality and the needs of their constituents. Pat has earned my confidence and vote.

Dear Mayor and Council Members,

I send this letter in support of Pat Amsbry, my neighbor and friend. Pat is a man of indefatigable curiosity and energy. He is the very picture of Gandhi's imperative: Be the change you want to see in the world.

Pat is a problem solver, as can be evidenced in the amount of energy, support and innovative ideas he has brought to the various community organizations he is a member of. He loves his community and has worked for long term justice in the multiple hours he has given to such organizations as Reading Partners at Madison Elementary, the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center and volunteering with the Pasadena Police Department. He is constantly involved in activities and organizations that make Pasadena such a special place to live, helping the community, preserving its history and looking for ways to make life better for all Pasadena's residents. He would be a wonderful addition to the Pasadena City Council

Repeatedly, when Pat sees a need, he works to improve it and encourage others to his cause, as evidenced with his devotion to Reading Partners and Madison Elementary School. Pat and his wife Kate host an annual holiday party for our neighborhood asking all to bring book donations for Reading Partners and have someone from the organization speak so as to drum up more volunteers. As a couple they have become very engaged with Madison Elementary, donating hundreds of backpacks and supplies at the start of the school year, and volunteering early in the pandemic giving out lunches. As a Councilmember he would bring an empathetic heart with a can-do attitude. He deeply cares about making sure opportunities are available to all students in Pasadena.

Another area of equity Pat has given energy to is making sure the Rose Bowl Aquatic Center is more open to serving traditionally underserved communities. He cares deeply about making sure all children are water safe and has sought my opinion as an educator as how to best reach teachers to make this a priority for their students. This exemplifies his willingness to talk to those outside his field in order to get authentic opinions, which is another important asset of a councilman.

From other conversations I know Pat cares about preserving historic places and advancing the causes of the City of Pasadena. He volunteered with the Old Mill in San Marino, working to preserve valuable historic resources. When the City had to sell the community on raising taxes on itself, Pat hosted a neighborhood meeting with Mayor Tornek to help the community understand why raising the sales tax as a city would be more beneficial than not doing so and letting the County raise their share of taxes. He is a savvy financially, which would be another great asset as a councilman.

To add to all this, Pat has a great sense of humor and is very fun to be around. You will definitely enjoy working with him.

Thank you so much for your time.

Sincerely,
Jill Frazee

I am writing to support the candidacy of Pat Amsbry for the open District 5 City Council position. I have known Pat for many years. Our children attended Polytechnic School, and we worked together on numerous different parent committees. He was a very strong chair of several different committees while at Poly, and I enjoyed working with him. Under his leadership, we accomplished our goals, and all worked together as a team.

Pat is a long-time resident of Pasadena and is well known and respected in our community. He is committed to making our community a better place to be, and always is looking for ways to help. He is an active volunteer and makes big impacts wherever he goes. Pat seeks solutions to problems by listening to different viewpoints and is unafraid to change his mind after examining an issue. I believe that he would listen to his constituents and work together with other City Council members to help keep Pasadena the city that we all love.

I have known Pat Amsbry and his family intimately since October 2005. Pat is a wonderful person who is committed to our community. He is highly educated, has a good sense of humor and best of all he has a big heart. He is a businessman/entrepreneur and knows how to balance the budget and get to the bottom line.

Pat is very involved in many charitable and philanthropic activities. He and his wife Kate also volunteer for a remedial reading program at one of the local elementary schools. Pat has a get it done attitude and will never give up. He is personable, generous and warm hearted. Pat loves sports and is an avid supporter of the Rose Bowl.

He is very open to diversity and has introduced me to many of his friends of different ethnicities. Pat is a uniter — not a divider. I have never heard him say anything negative about anyone and he always sees the glass half full rather than half empty.

I know that Pat will work very hard on the City Council for all of his constituents. I would highly recommend without reservation my friend Pat Amsbry for the next councilman of District 5.

I am writing to express my support and endorsement of Pat Amsbry for the district 5 city council member position. As a Pasadena native, I care deeply for my community and intentionally chose to remain in my hometown as an adult because of my childhood experience. My Orange Heights neighborhood has only enhanced my perception of our community, and my neighbor Pat has been a huge part of that. Pat's involvement and care of his neighbors is unprecedented, as is his multitude of volunteering efforts in the greater community. I have no doubt he would be an invaluable advocate for all who reside in District 5 if given the honor.

I am sending this note of support on behalf of Pat Amsbry who is applying for the open District 5 City Council Position.

I have served as a Board member of the Rose Bowl Aquatics Center with Pat for the past 5 years. As a result, I've come to know and see, in action, Pat's leadership abilities, his love for the City of Pasadena and his passion for service to his community. As a dedicated volunteer, Pat is an individual who goes above and beyond. I can attest to his tireless spirit and the seriousness with which he fills his volunteer commitments. As much as he is a leader, he is also a consensus builder and is always seeking the ideas and opinions of others. He has had to lead the RBAC through some difficult periods of time (due to Covid-19) and has not only been focused on the practical resources decisions but he is mindful and considerate of the people part of the equation as well (both internal - staff - and external - the user public).

I believe Pat will be a dedicated public servant and hope he is selected for this opportunity and important responsibility.
Thank you for allowing me to support my friend Pat.

As a long time patron of the Rosebowl Aquatic center, and Rosebowl diving team booster board member, I had the pleasure to interact with Patrick Amsbry for many years. Mr. Amsbry volunteers on the board of the Pasadena aquatic center, and currently serves as interim director. Throughout these years he has demonstrated passion and exceptional interpersonal and creative skills, helping the aquatic center succeed and grow. This past year the center was faced with many challenges, and Mr. Amsbry worked incessantly with the other board members, providing patrons with the best safety measures, so much that the center didn't have one single case of COVID-19. Recently, he personally helped our team to go back training at the pool, spending hours upon hours to strategize and put together protocols for water safety to present to the health department. He was able to establish with them a very productive and professional communication which allowed our kids to go back in the water and get ready for CIF and other competitions. I highly recommend Patrick Amsbry as district 5 council member. He would be a terrific asset for the community, with his knowledge, grit and compassion, as well as positive attitude and work ethic.

I've known Pat for almost 30 years. We were college roommates, I was Best Man at his wedding and am the Godfather to his youngest son Tom. Throughout the many moments I've shared with Pat I've come to admire his intelligence, his quick wit, his capacity to get things done and his compassion for others. I am excited that he has chosen to dedicate his time and energy to helping shape the future of one of America's greatest cities. He will be an outstanding asset to the Council.

Over the past few years, I have had the honor of working with Pat Amsbry on projects for the Rose Bowl Aquatics Center's Board of Directors. Pat agreed to serve as the Board's Chairperson during, perhaps, the most challenging time in its history.

His leadership ability, a steady hand, and keen insight have been crucial in keeping the RBAC afloat throughout these troubled times. Still, the commitment and passion Pat showed have been even more critical to our successes. Dedication like his is all too rare among the boards of not-for-profit organizations.

I am sure that Pat never anticipated the challenge of navigating a world-class facility like the RBAC through a pandemic when he agreed to serve. Nevertheless, he honored his responsibilities, devoting levels of time and energy few others would. Pasadena might well have lost this jewel without Pat's efforts to rally his team and keep everyone moving forward.

I feel confident that Pat Amsbry would represent the citizens of District 5 with the same zeal he has shown with the region's prime aquatics venue. I urge the City Council to name Pat its newest member.

Writing today in support of Patrick Amsbry's bid for the vacant Pasadena City Council seat.

Our families have been friends and neighbors for nearly eighteen years. Patrick is a good guy and deeply committed to enthusiastically helping people in our Pasadena community.

From coaching AYSO to volunteering at their kid's schools, from the RBAC board and chairmanship during COVID-19 to reading to the kids at and donating books to Madison Elementary, Patrick is always looking for hands-on tangible avenues for helping folks and contributing.

Patrick's motivation for the vacant City Council position is to expand his opportunities to help Pasadena. His passion and boundless enthusiasm will be an asset to all Pasadenans.

I have known Pat Amsbry for the past decade. I have known his wife and sons as well. The entire family are truly amazing people and great citizens of the City of Pasadena. Without any reservation or hesitation, I want to endorse Pat for the open City Council seat in District 5. He's bright, energetic, a great listener, patient, and pragmatic -- all skills that are essential to success in public service. He would be a great addition to the Council and a great collaborator in the community. Pat has a high degree of self-awareness and is a transparent communicator.

Please give Mr. Amsbry strong consideration for this position. It would be great for the Council and great for the City as a whole. He's embodies what we want on the City Council in every way.

I am available 24/7 to speak more closely to his skills and qualifications if needed. My cellular number is listed below in my email signature.

Comments:

My name is Alisa Gmelich and I'm sending this comment on behalf of myself and my husband, Griffin Gmelich. We are District 5 residents and the purpose of this comment is to share our passionate recommendation for Pat Amsbry as City Council Member for District 5. We have known Pat for over 16 years. We believe that Pat is the best candidate for this role due to his great experience and unwavering motivation to make important improvements to our community. He is fully dedicated to working on hard problems and finding both short-term and long-term solutions that will impact our community's future. He works collaboratively with all partners to solve complicated problems in both his place of business and in his community work. He is able to make sound decisions based on data, insights and key feedback from partners and seeks out different perspectives, which is so important in a diverse community, such as ours. He has volunteered countless hours to the community and has a very clear picture of where we are today and what the opportunities are for improvement. We look forward to Pat's leadership in District 5.

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to pledge my support for Pat Ambry's application for City Councilmember for District 5. As will be known to the readers of this letter, Pat has enjoyed success in his corporate career, as an entrepreneur and local business owner. He is also a community builder. I support Pat's application not only because he loves the City of Pasadena, but because of his character, integrity and genuine selflessness. It is his lack of self-promotion and self-interest that will allow him to carry out his responsibilities without ulterior motives, but rather focus him on serving the members of District 5. As an accomplished business person, he has a proven track record of managing relationships with various stakeholders which may be his most valuable skill to this role - to collaborate and execute. During the past few years, he has invested significantly in his personal and professional development, and is committed to a life of learning, which makes him a humble leader.
