Councilmember Williams reported that she is not biased towards any applicant and will make an informed decision on the information presented today.

Mayor Gordo reported that he is familiar with all four applicants who live in his district, and acknowledged that some have volunteered on his Mayoral campaign, and noted that he contacted all four applicants to thank them for their interest in serving their community.

In response to Councilmember Madison's concern related to Ms. Rivas' and all other applicants' ability to serve on the City Council, Michele Beal Bagneris, City Attorney/City Prosecutor, stated per an Attorney General's Opinion, it would not be a conflict for Ms. Rivas to serve in her Los Angeles County employment capacity and also serve on the City Council. In addition, she stated that the Mayor may ask the candidates to confirm they have cleared any conflict of interest related to their current employment status.

Jessica Rivas, Michael Warner, Martha Shenkenberg, and Patrick Amsbry, District 5 applicants, provided an overview of their personal and professional experiences, and responded to questions asked by each member of the City Council.

Following all presentations and interviews, the City Council deliberated on the qualifications of each applicant for the District 5 vacancy. The Mayor and City Council each noted with admiration the strength of the applicant pool, and congratulated Jessica Rivas, Michael Warner, Martha Shenkenberg, and Patrick Amsbry for representing District 5 in such a positive and distinguished manner.
