Dear City of Pasadena,

Thank you for renewing the contract for Hestia House which supports transitional age youth.

It is so important at this stage of life to provide the support so that these young people are able to stay in school or get a job that doesn't fully support them. Over time, with support, these young people can become contributing members of society. Our young people are our future leaders of tomorrow.

Thanks for making this commitment for the future.

Blessings,

Marilynne Kennedy Wilander
