CONSIDERATION OF A RESOLUTION TO CONTINUE TO ALLOW THE CITY COUNCIL, ALL OF ITS SUBORDINATE BODIES, AND ALL OF ITS NON-PROFIT CORPORATION BOARDS AND THEIR SUBORDINATE BODIES, TO MEET REMOTELY PURSUANT TO THE BROWN ACT

Recommendation: It is recommended that the City Council:

(1) Find that this action is exempt from review pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) in accordance with State CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3), the “common sense” exemption that CEQA only applies to projects that have the potential for causing a significant effect on the environment; and
(2) Adopt a Resolution of the City Council of the City of Pasadena Authorizing Remote Teleconference Meetings of the City Council, all City subordinate bodies, and all City non-profit corporation Boards and their subordinate bodies, for the period April 11, 2022 to May 11, 2022. (Resolution No. 9905)

City Clerk Jomsky reported that one letter in opposition to the staff recommendation was received by the City Clerk’s Office, which was distributed to the City Council, posted on-line, and made part of the public record for this item.

The following individuals spoke in opposition to the staff recommendation and provided comments:

Kareena K., representing Black Lives Matter – Los Angeles
Michael Williams, Pasadena resident
Jason R., Los Angeles resident

Following a brief discussion, it was moved by Vice Mayor Wilson, seconded by Councilmember Williams, to approve the staff recommendation:

AYES: Councilmembers Hampton, Kennedy, Madison, Masuda, Rivas, Williams, Vice Mayor Wilson, Mayor Gordo
NOES: None
ABSENT: None

PUBLIC HEARING:

PUBLIC HEARING: SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT (SCEA) FOR THE CENTRAL PARK APARTMENTS PROJECT AT 86 SOUTH FAIR OAKS AVENUE

Recommendation: It is recommended that, following a public hearing, the City Council:

(1) Adopt the Resolution in Attachment A of the agenda report approving the Sustainable Communities Environmental Assessment (SCEA) (SCH # 2021030197), adopting findings, and adopting the Mitigation Monitoring and Reporting Program (MMRP); and (Resolution No. 9906)

(2) Direct the City Clerk to file a Notice of Determination with the Los Angeles County Recorder.

City Clerk Jomsky opened the public hearing; reported that 775 copies of the public hearing notice were mailed on March 28, 2022. He also reported that three letters advocating for the City to reject the Sustainable Communities Environmental Assessment related to the proposed project; two letters in support of the staff recommendation; and five letters expressing concerns with the proposed project; were received by the City Clerk's Office, which were distributed to the City Council, posted on-line, and made part of the public hearing record for this item.

David Reyes, Director of Planning and Community Development, provided introductory comments, and Kevin Johnson, Principal Planner, presented a PowerPoint presentation on the item; and responded to questions.

The following individuals spoke in support of the staff proposed project at 86 South Fair Oaks Avenue and provided comments:

Peter Hartshin, Pasadena resident
Monica Saenz, Pasadena resident
Angelica Melendrez, Pasadena resident
Lisa Villareal, Pasadena resident
Marina Luna, Pasadena resident

The following individuals expressed concerns with the proposed project at 86 South Fair Oaks Avenue, the Sustainable Communities Environmental Assessment (SCEA) review, possible traffic impacts, additional affordable set-aside units, and/or provided comments:

Sam Hooker, Pasadena resident
Corrie Coughlin, Pasadena resident
Douglas Carstens, representing Castle Green Homeowners Association
Mike Salazar, representing Castle Green Homeowners Association
David Woodbury, Pasadena resident
Nina Chomsky, Pasadena resident

Jill Shook, Pasadena resident
Margaret Morgan, Pasadena resident
John Cambianica, Glendale resident
Adriana Bautista, Pasadena resident

Richard McDonald and Emily Taylor, representing the applicant, spoke on the project's SCEA, which analyzed all applicable criteria related to the project that they believe is a more than sufficient informational document providing information on the environmental impacts and mitigation measures that are required; and spoke in support of the staff recommendation; and responded to questions. In response to Councilmember Madison's inquiry regarding the applicant's intent to sell residential units as condominiums, Ms. Taylor stated that she would submit a letter requesting to withdraw their 2018 application for a vesting tentative tract map by the end of the week.

Vice Mayor Wilson expressed concerns with traffic impact on Dayton Street; and suggested that staff consider placing a traffic light at Dayton and South Fair Oaks. He also asked staff to be mindful of excavation work for the new building, noting the project's proximity to the historic building on site.

Motion: It was moved by Councilmember Williams, seconded by Vice Mayor Wilson, to close the public hearing:

AYES: Councilmembers Hampton, Kennedy, Madison, Masuda, Rivas, Williams, Vice Mayor Wilson Mayor Gordo
NOES: None
ABSTAIN: None

Councilmember Madison and Mayor Gordo clarified that the public hearing is one step in the process as the project moves through building permitting, noting that the design review process will address some of the concerns raised by the community.

Theresa Fuentes, Assistant City Attorney, provided information on projects that must start with an initial study, related to Sustainable Communities Environmental Assessment, Environmental Impact Report, or Mitigated Negative Declaration reviews; and responded to questions.

Motion: It was moved by Councilmember Hampton, seconded by Councilmember Williams, approve the staff recommendation:

AYES: Councilmembers Hampton, Kennedy, Madison, Masuda, Rivas, Vice Mayor Wilson Mayor Gordo
NOES: Councilmember Williams
ABSENT: None
ABSTAIN: None

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS

Mayor Gordo recused himself and left the meeting at 6:22 p.m. Vice Mayor Wilson chaired the meeting in his absence.

SUNSET THE LOCAL MORATORIUM ON EVICTION OF RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL TENANTS IMPACTED BY THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Recommendation: It is recommended that the City Council:

- (1) Find that the recommended action is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines per Section 15061 (b) (3), the common sense exemption that CEQA only applies to projects that may have an effect on the environment; and
- (2) Direct the City Attorney to prepare and return within 30 days with an ordinance that sunsets the COVID-19 eviction moratorium, Ordinance No. 7359: (a) for commercial properties at the time of adoption (anticipated to be in or around the middle of May, 2022); and (b) for residential properties on June 30, 2022.

William Huang, Director of Housing, provided introductory comments, and Jim Wong, Senior Project Manager, presented a PowerPoint presentation on the item; and responded to questions.

In response to public correspondence received, Cynthia Kurtz, Interim City Manager, clarified that staff spoke with commercial brokers related to the commercial eviction moratorium and not residential eviction moratorium; and responded to questions.

Michele Beal Bagneris, City Attorney, provided information on the US Court of Appeals for the Eight Circuit related to eviction moratoriums, and responded to questions.

City Clerk Jomsky reported that twenty-four letters in support of the staff recommendation, eight letters advocating for the City to continue the current tenant protections until December 2022 or to follow State and County mandates when considering lifting eviction moratoriums, and five letters in opposition to the staff recommendation were received by the City Clerk's Office, which were distributed to the City Council, posted on-line, and made part of the record for this item.

The following individuals spoke in support of the staff recommendation and provided comments:

Matthew Buck, representing the California Apartment Association
Jason Fujimoto, representing NMM Investments
Aida Dimejian, representing Pasadena-Foothill Association of Realtors
Rian Barrett, representing Pasadena Foothills Realtors

Jill Shook, Pasadena resident
Sonja Berndt, Pasadena resident
Julie Martinez, Pasadena resident
James Clark, Pasadena resident
PJ Johnson, Pasadena resident
Tina Fredericks, residence not stated

Councilmember Rivas spoke in opposition to the staff recommendation and expressed concerns that staff did not speak with Pasadena tenants who will be affected by the proposed ordinance to sunset the moratorium on evictions related to Covid-19.

In response to public comment, Councilmember Masuda stated that he is a landlord for property outside of Pasadena.

Councilmember Madison expressed concerns with the staff recommendation; requested information on data related to evictions that would otherwise occur without a moratorium in place. He also expressed concerns with Pasadena property owners having to “shoulder” the burden of providing affordable housing.

Councilmember Williams spoke on smaller property owners who she believes are being disproportionately affected by the moratorium on evictions, and advocated for additional funding for homeless prevention, including recruiting additional Section 8 landlords.

Councilmembers Masuda and Kennedy, and Vice Mayor Wilson spoke in support of the staff recommendation.

Following discussion, it was moved by Councilmember Masuda, seconded by Councilmember Williams, approve the staff recommendation:

AYES: Councilmembers Hampton, Kennedy, Madison, Masuda, Williams, Vice Mayor Wilson
NOES: Councilmember Rivas

ORDINANCE – FIRST READING

Mayor Gordo returned to the dais and meeting at 8:00 p.m., and resumed chairing the meeting.

Conduct first reading of “AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PASADENA AMENDING CHAPTER 9.37 (LEAF-BLOWING MACHINES) OF TITLE 9 (PUBLIC PEACE, MORALS AND WELFARE) OF THE PASADENA MUNICIPAL CODE RELATED TO THE PROHIBITION OF GAS-POWERED LEAF-BLOWING MACHINES”

The following individuals provided comments on the matter:

Adriana Bautista, Pasadena resident
Jill Shook, Pasadena resident
Jasmine Richards Abdullah, representing Black Lives Matter(BLM) – Pasadena

Mayor Gordo asked staff to determine if the City can coordinate gas-powered leaf-blower machine exchanges, similar to the city trade-in or subsidy program to replace old appliances/refrigerators.

Interim City Manager Kurtz provided information on South Coast Air Quality Management District’s (SCAQMD) lawn and garden equipment exchange program; and responded to questions.

In response to Interim City Manager Kurtz comments, Mayor Gordo asked staff to disseminate information on the SCQAMD trade-in program to the City Council, as well as maintenance and hardware shops located in the City that are patronized by gardeners.

Following discussion, the above ordinance was offered for first reading by Councilmember Kennedy:

INFORMATION ITEM

OVERVIEW OF INVESTIGATIONS OF POLICE OFFICER-INVOLVED SHOOTINGS

Mayor Gordo provided introductory comments, and asked Councilmembers to provide specific questions in written format so that staff may respond to all members of the Council. Interim City Manager Kurtz provided an oral overview of the general process for Officer Involved Shooting (OIS) incidents, including information on the reviews conducted (not including civil litigation); and City Attorney Bagneris reported that the City anticipates reviewing the Pasadena Police Department's policy in the context of the OIS incident involving Anthony McClain with the Community Police Oversight Commission to address policies and training issues on a go-forward basis; and stated that the public may also submit questions to City staff, however, there are no guarantees that the questions will be answered; with both responding to questions.

The following individuals expressed concerns the Los Angeles County District Attorney's decision to not file criminal charges against the Pasadena Police Department officers involved in the shooting of Anthony McClain, and/or provided comments on the matter:

Jane Ward, representing Showing Up for Racial Justice
Pasadena
Max Boyle, Altadena resident
Olden Denham, Pasadena resident
Allen Shay, Pasadena resident

Kaveh Naeeni, Pasadena resident
Yvonne Trice, representing A Mother's Voice
Julie Martinez, Pasadena resident
Jill Shook, representing Making Housing and Community
Happen
Jason Reedy, Los Angeles resident
Allison Henry, Pasadena resident

City Clerk Jomsky reported that eight letters advocating for additional thorough investigations of the Anthony McClain (IOS) incident and/or advocating for the firing of the Pasadena Police Officers involved in the IOS were received by the City Clerk's Office, which were distributed to the City Council, posted on-line, and made part of the record for this item.

Councilmember Hampton expressed concerns with the duration the City waited for the Los Angeles County District Attorney's decision, which resulted in no criminal charges filed against the Pasadena Police Department officers, and spoke on the need for staff to ensure the hiring of officers who are able to follow procedures and policies.

Following discussion, on the order of the Mayor, and consensus of the City Council, the information was received and filed.

PUBLIC COMMENT

The following individuals advocated for the City Council to develop clear policing practices, policies and training for the Pasadena Police Department, and for the termination of Pasadena Police Officers (Dumaguindin, Serrano) involved in the shooting of Anthony McClain; expressed concerns with City Council meeting policies; and spoke on the need to address accountability and transparency within the Pasadena Police Department:
