Our people

General Members Council

The General Members Council (ALR) is Rabobank's highest governing body. In the ALR, the members are represented by chairpersons of local supervisory boards. The ALR has about 100 members and meets four times per year. It is a member body, as only directly elected member representatives participate in it. The ALR has a broad focus and concentrates on the activities within the cooperative, local Rabobanks, subsidiaries and affiliated companies both in the Netherlands and abroad. Within the cooperative, the ALR fulfils the role of owner on behalf of 2.1 million members.

Governance

Rabobank is a cooperative bank. In the Netherlands that means a bank of members acting for society. Any customer 12 years or older can become a member of one of more than 80 local Rabobanks. Many of our customers become members because they feel involved in their community and what Rabobank contributes to it. Two million of our customers in the Netherlands are members.
