As the pastor of Friendship Pasadena Church (aka Friendship Baptist) I have overseen the 1.3 million dollar renovation of an historic church and as President of The Pasadena Friendship CIC I am leading the effort to acquire 17 rental units to be used for affordable housing in South Pasadena. We also perform community cleanup days for seniors and needy residents who can't otherwise afford it.

As a lifelong resident of Pasadena I have developed relationships within the community that can be valuable in advancing issues that may arise. I have handled conflict resolution and personal development. I have attended community gatherings dealing with officer involved shootings & affordable housing. I have a good reputation.

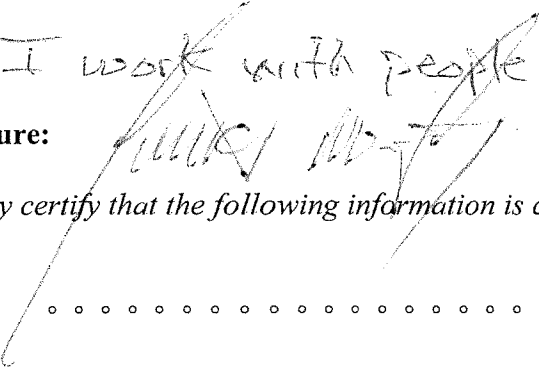

9. What do you see as the objectives and goals of the City Council?

- 1) To manage the business affairs of the city
- 2) To protect and promote the well being of its citizens
- 3) To ensure the fair and equitable allocation of the city's resources in every district or neighborhood
- 4) To promote the city in the marketplace to attract business & tourism

10. How would you help achieve these objectives and goals? What special qualities would you bring?

- 1) Take time to learn from my Council colleagues what the major challenges.
- 2) work with them to accomplish those goals
- 3) Listen to and work with community members & advocates to earn their trust.
- 4) Listen to and learn from those who may disagree with to policies & general direction the Council may choose to make
- 5) I work with people everyday and know how to build
