Good morning, Jana,

Copying Lola here, and tried unsuccessfully to reach her a couple of times late yesterday. But I know you're awaiting a response, so I'll share it here and catch up with Lola hopefully today. Quartney has resigned her position here at BGCP so will not be re-upping her spot on the commission in July, and will also be stepping down from the commission effective immediately (or after tonight's meeting). Not sure of the official way to do this.

BGCP would still love to have the opportunity to have a representative on the commission. But I need to have some conversations about it here, and to understand the application process and timing.

Thanks so much,

Lisa
