“4.08.075 - Specifications for public works construction.

Except as may otherwise be provided herein or as required by the procurement documents and/or contract, the provisions of the then current edition of the "Standard Specifications for Public Works Construction," prepared and promulgated by the Southern California Chapter of the American Public Works Association and the Southern California Districts of the Associated General Contractors of California and any supplements thereto issued or approved by the city engineer, are adopted and applicable to all public works construction undertaken after the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter.

SECTION 6. Pasadena Municipal Code, Title 4, Chapter 4.08 (Purchasing Ordinance) is amended by adding Section 4.08.136 (Alternative project delivery) to read as follows:

“4.08.136 Alternative project delivery

- A. The city council may approve the following alternative project delivery methods for the procurement, design, construction, improvement, repair, maintenance, and/or operation of a public works project: design-build, progressive design-build, design-build-operate-maintain, design-build-finance-operate-maintain, construction manager at-risk, or other project delivery methods.
- B. Alternative project delivery methods may be used for projects that are valued at more than $1 million and for projects that are valued at less than $1 million if recommended by the city manager, and that meet at least one of the criteria in both of the following subsections (1) and (2), such that the selected method is in the best interests of the city:
 - 1. The project:
 - a. Has a high level of technical complexity;
 - b. Calls for expertise that city staff does not possess;
 - c. Has a scope of work and technical requirements that are difficult to define;
 - d. Benefits from early contractor involvement;
 - e. Calls for a high level of risk management;
 - f. Has complex phasing for implementation;
 - g. Calls for overall schedule acceleration;
 - h. Calls for value engineering or other solutions to reduce construction costs or to improve function, quality, performance, or sustainability;
 - i. Has budget constraints requiring construction cost guarantees; and/or

- j. Contemplates a third party operating, managing, maintaining, or servicing the building, facility, or infrastructure after the project's completion.
 - 2. The alternative project delivery method is anticipated to:
 - a. Minimize the project delivery time;
 - b. Accelerate the start of project revenue;
 - c. Minimize the project's cost;
 - d. Maximize the project's budget; and/or
 - e. Improve the project's quality or functionality.
- C. City council approval of an alternative project delivery method is required before the preparation of a competitive selection procedure seeking proposals for an alternative project delivery method.
- D. Competitive Selection Procedures
 - 1. The solicitation shall include the scope and needs of a project, selection method, and selection factors and relative weight of those factors.
 - 2. The following competitive selection processes may be used:
 - a. Request for qualifications;
 - b. Request for proposals; or
 - c. Request for alternative technical proposals.
- E. Contract Award
 - 1. The contract shall be awarded by the city council to the best value proposer.
 - 2. For alternative project delivery methods that will involve negotiation of a guaranteed maximum price, the city council in its sole discretion may direct completion of the project at a cost not to exceed the guaranteed maximum price agreed to by the city and contractor. If the city and contractor do not reach agreement on a guaranteed maximum price, or the city council otherwise elects not to direct completion of the remaining work, the city council may direct solicitation of proposals to complete the project from firms that submitted statements of qualifications or proposals pursuant to subdivision (D)(2) of this section. The city council may also direct, upon determination that it is in the best interest of the city, solicitation of proposals or bids from other entities to complete the project.”

SECTION 7. The City Clerk shall certify the adoption of this ordinance and shall cause this ordinance to be published by title and summary.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall take effect upon publication.
