Subject: July 9th Arts and Culture Commission Meeting

As you may have heard, Anna, the kids and I will be moving to Dublin, Ireland at the end of the month, so last night's meeting was my final one as a commissioner. I addressed this publicly during the meeting. Serving on this commission has been a tremendous privilege. I've been continually impressed by the dedication and thoughtful engagement my fellow commissioners bring to this important work. I also feel fortunate to have collaborated with such exceptional staff - Rochelle Branch, Corey Dunlap, and Patricia Valencia are true professionals who make meaningful community impact possible. Most importantly, I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve you in supporting our city's arts and culture. You are an exceptional advocate for our community, and your leadership makes a real difference that I witness regularly. Thank you for entrusting me with this role.
