This public comment is being provided because on 08/20/2020, at 7:44 p.m., I submitted a public comment to make a motion to modify the Oversight plan for an Independent auditor plan because there is an existing commission called Northwest commission with the same functions.

As of Saturday, 08/ 22/2020, I learned that the agenda information posted on Thursday 08/20/2020, was changed on Friday 08/ 21/2020, and did not reflect the specific section as included in the agenda documents on 08/20/2020. I was not able to retrieve the agenda documents from the 08/03/2020, City Council meeting as well.

I believe the City of Pasadena has been tested after the release of the Pasadena Police Department release of their videos on 08/20/2020, and how the city officials have responded in the aftermath of the Police shooting of Anthony McClain. The residences have communicated their demands to take effect on August 24, 2020, that the City officials terminate the two officers, modify the current oversight plan to consist of an independent auditor only without the authority, input or oversight of any city officials including the City manager in order to be fully independent and completely transparent in the investigation and reporting process.

Well, another black man has died at the hands of PPD who indiscriminately fired into a residential neighborhood. This time because of a license plate. Anthony McClain was running when he was shot in the back, which is clear from the bodycam. PPD admittedly violated its own policy when the officer who shot didn't activate it properly and Chief Pere has the audacity to say "oops it happens all the time." I know Councilman Madison and his ilk are too chickenshit to make real efforts at oversight, but make no mistake more of us are seeing through your bullshit and we will be outside your houses protesting.

No justice, no peace.

Anthony McClain's death is a tragic and timely reminder that we cannot rely on police to supervise themselves, or on those connected to police to be unbiased about police actions. Law enforcement's pro-slavery origins continue to influence how police interact with Black people. By establishing a Community Police Oversight Commission and an Independent Auditor Function, Pasadena has an opportunity to fight the legacy of anti-Black racism in law enforcement and increase public safety and community equity.

I support a Police Oversight Commission and an independent auditor with subpoena power. I also ask that the Pasadena PD release the names of the officers who shot Anthony McClain in the back. The family deserves to know who killed their loved one. There needs to be an independent investigation of his killing.
